

OMNICANE GROUP

CHILD AND FORCED LABOUR POLICY

Omnicanne is fully committed to be a leading and reliable supplier in all its products and services related to sugarcane, energy production and other agricultural produce. We treat people with dignity and respect and believes in a 'No child labour and no forced labour policy'.

In its endeavour to achieve the highest standards of quality in all its practices and operations, Omnicanne relies on its human resources, recruited within the legal framework. Being conscious of its societal responsibility, Omnicanne is committed to the principles of protecting children from child labour exploitation and is also engaged in preventing and discouraging all forms of forced labour.

Omnicanne complies with the Child Protection Act to ensure protection against all forms of abuse, and the Workers' Rights Act which prohibits employment of persons aged below 16 in line with the Education Act providing for compulsory education up to the age 16. This is also in harmony with the ILO Minimum Age Convention No. 138 stipulating that the minimum age for employment should not be less than the age for statutory schooling.

Omnicanne shall always comply with all relevant and applicable local labour regulations and principles relating to the protection, welfare, health and safety of children. No person deemed to be a child shall be employed on any of our site of operations. Furthermore, we shall ensure that all Contractors engaged on our premises do strictly abide by this policy. Our policy is to prohibit the use of forced or compulsory labour in all our operations and to ensure that no employee is made to work against his/her will or to work as forced labour or subjected to coercion of any kind related to work.

.....
Hamid Seelarbokus
Group Human Resources Manager

.....
Jacques M. d'Unienville
Chief Executive Officer

Version 03
16th February 2021